

The Oak Hammock Golf Tournament

Oak Hammock at the University of Florida, located in Gainesville, Florida, is nothing like you've seen before: It's an innovative community affiliated with a great university, focused on lifelong learning, fitness, and health. Situated in a picturesque, resort-style environment and energized by our unique university affiliation, Oak Hammock is a retirement destination where life, learning and nature meet.

The Oak Hammock Golf Tournament has raised over $71,000 for the Oak Hammock Benevolent Fund since 2006 and, with your help, this year's tournament is on track to be even more successful.
